

WHO IS HAPPY-VOCABULARY

CLICK PARA INSTRUCCIONES

Once a crow looked at a swan & thought how beautiful the swan is.

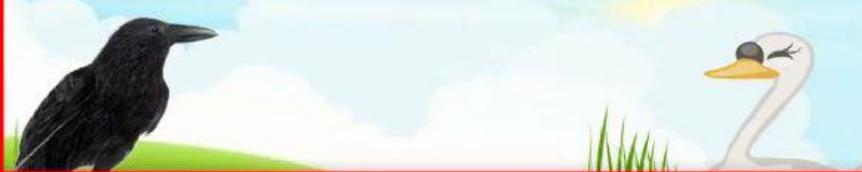

Once-una vez

crow-cuervo

swan-cisne

thought-pensó

She had all white feathers whereas the crow was black.

had-tenía

feathers-plumas

whereas-mientras que

The crow expressed his thoughts to the swan.

expressed-expresó

Thoughts-pensamientos

The swan replied that according to her, the parrot is the most beautiful bird as it has two colours & the swan had just one.

replied-respondió

according-según

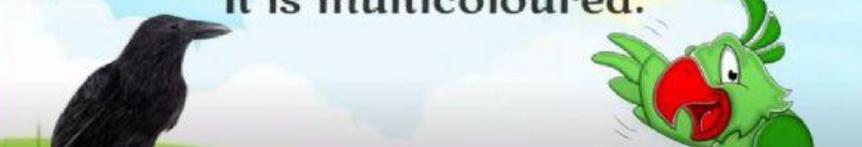

parrot-loro

the most-el mas

as-mientras

just-solo

Next, the crow approached the parrot, who simply said that peacock is the most beautiful than him, as it is multicoloured.

next-a continuación

approached-acercó

who-quien

peacock-pavo real

When the crow expressed his thoughts to the peacock, the peacock replied,

when-cuando

"My dear crow, you are the luckiest bird on this planet as you are never caged."

dear-cariño

luckiest-más afortunado

bird-pajaro

planet-planeta

Never-nunca

caged-enjaulado

"Because of my beauty, I am trapped in this cage & you are free."

Because of-a causa de

beauty-belleza

cage-jaula

free-libre

On hearing this, the crow thought how foolish he had been & thanked God for making him the way he was.

on hearing-al escuchar

foolish-tonto

had-había

been-sido

god-dios

way-manera

Moral:
Never compare yourself to others. Be happy in what you are & what you have.

compare-compares

yourself-tú mismo

others-otros

be-se

happy-feliz