

UNIT 6 - JOBS - VOCABULARY

A person who arranges or cuts hair.		A. ARCHITECT
A person who cleans, esp. as an occupation.		B. POLITICIAN
A person in charge of a library		C. CLEANER
A employee who carries and delivers mail		D. PUBLISHER
A person or company whose business is the publishing of books, periodicals, etc.		E. QUIT
A person who writes computer programs.		F. RETIRE
An expert in science, esp. one of the physical or natural sciences		G. BUSINESS
A person who designs buildings.		H. COMPUTER PROGRAMMER
A person who makes music a profession, esp. as a performer of music.		I. SALARY
One who is active in politics, esp. as a career.		J. CAREER
One whose job is sailing		K. MICROSCOPE
A man employed in business.		L. SAILOR
The buying and selling of goods for profit; trade;		M. STRANGE LOOKING
A electrical appliance that sends out a heated air to dry the hair.		N. MANAGER
An instrument having a magnifying lens, used for viewing things too small to be seen by the eye.		O. POSTMAN

A device for reproducing the sounds stored on a record that rotates		P. PART TIME JOB
When someone or something has an unfamiliar appearance		Q. BUSINESSMAN
One who directs or assists in the activities of a team, a company or a group.		R. LIBRARIAN
Working the complete number of hours in each day, week, or month		S. HAIRDRESSER
Working on less than a full-time schedule		T. HAIRDRYER
A fixed amount of money paid regularly to a person for work:		U. BOSS
A person who employs workers and controls everything		V. STAFF
A group of workers, who carry out the work of an establishment		W. SCIENTIST
To stop working in a job because of the boss decision		X. MUSICIAN
A profession that is one's most important work in life		Y. FULL TIME JOB
To give up from a job or career because of age		Z. RECORD PLAYER