My First Concert
(1) Oh, I've Luv! I play the guitar to a band. I started learning about two years ago and the group got together last year. Anyway, a week ago we had our first concert and I want to tell you about it.
(2) It was in the local town hall, not the Royal Albert Hall, where we practice, and near the bank where my mum works. The concert was to raise some money for three local charities that help older and disabled. There were two other groups as well as us. Another group wanted to play too, but their singer was ill so they couldn't do it.

A last year.

B a week ago.

2 Luv's first concert was at:

C the town hall.

3 Money from the concert went to:

A some charities.

B one of the singers.

C the band.

4 How many bands played at the concert?

A two.

B three.

C four.

(5) The town hall is big enough for about three hundred people, but unfortunately there were only about eighty people there (and fifty of them were our friends and families).
(6) Anyway, my friend's band played first, then us and finally a band of older teenagers, who were really good. My friend's band was OK, but they made a lot of mistakes. They played a lot of pop songs, which none of the audience liked, but I can't mind.
(7) As we play rock and the older kids' band plays hip-hop, so there was a good mix of music. When we started playing, we could see that the audience liked pop more than rock. Some of them left the building and didn't come back. There were others started cheering. At first I thought it was because they liked us, but then I realised it was the opposite! I made things worse. I hit off the stage in the middle of our fourth song and hurt my leg! I didn't have to go to hospital, but it still hurt.
We're doing another concert in two weeks' time — I hope it goes better than this one!
