SIMILARITY

We can use as ... (adjective) as to say that two things are the same, or not as ... as to say that one thing is less than another:

Example: Alice is as tall as Valery

We can use not as ... (adjective) as to say that one thing is less than another:

Example: Maths isn´t as interesting as Arts

Look and complete: I think English isn't as difficult as (is not/difficult) Music.

Alan is _____ (clever) Laura.

Maths _____ (is not/easy) Arts.

My toe _____ (is not/big) yours.

Martín is _____ (funny) Águeda.

Rosalía is _____ (famous) Aitana.

Ann _____ (is not/hungry) Aitor.

LIVEWORKSHEETS