- 2 There aren't any flights until tomorrow.
- 3 There are any of the people from our plane.
- 4 Amy hasn't brought any sun cream.
- 5 Is there any information about our flight?
- 6 I've got any cheese here. Are you hungry?
- 7 There won't be any shops near the hotel.
- 8 Did you buy any souvenirs?
- 9 She hasn't got any luggage.
- 10 Mum didn't buy any bananas yesterday.

2. Complete the conversation. Use "some", "any", "How much", "How many"

Mrs Lane Good afternoon. Have you got <sup>1</sup> any bananas?

Assistant Yes, certainly. <sup>2</sup> any would you like?

Mrs Lane Five, but I haven't got <sup>3</sup> any money. I've got four pounds.

Assistant That's OK. They aren't very expensive.

Mrs Lane Yes, but I need <sup>4</sup> any cheese as well.

Assistant Here you are.

Mrs Lane <sup>5</sup> any is that?

Assistant That's three pounds, please.

Mrs Lane Here you are.

Assistant Thanks. <sup>6</sup> any money have you got now? One pound? Would you like to buy <sup>7</sup> any of our lovely grapes?

Mrs Lane Yes, please. I love grapes.

Assistant You're lucky. We don't usually have <sup>8</sup> any left at this time of day.

Mrs Lane I'll bring more money next time!
