Last summer, I went to a concert in Hyde Park with some friends and it was probably the best night of my life!

The journey to Hyde Park took ages, but we didn't mind. We were too excited! By the time we arrived, it had already started to rain. But we didn't feel cold or wet. As soon as the bands started playing, all we could think about was the music! At the end of the evening, we saw my favourite band, Green Day.

While my friends were dancing, I moved closer to the stage. Amazingly, the lead singer noticed me and afterwards he gave me an autograph. I've never had such a great night - I'll never forget it!
