

Name: _____ Date: _____

Unit 4: How does information technology shape our lives?

I.- Match the words and their definitions.

- |                            |                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.- drawback        | a) To have an influence on what someone or something does.                                                                |
| 2.- affect          | b) Someone you do not know.                                                                                               |
| 3.- stranger        | c) Pictures and sounds made by a computer that make you feel.                                                             |
| 4.- addictive       | d) A secret word that you put into your computer or a computer program so that only you can use it.                       |
| 5.- password        | e) Something you wear over your eyes, and sometimes ears, so that you can see pictures or hear sounds made by a computer. |
| 6.- headset         | f) Websites and computer programs that let you talk and share pictures and video on the Internet.                         |
| 7.- break down      | g) To get something helpful or good from a thing or situation.                                                            |
| 8.- virtual reality | h) To stop working or not to control your emotions.                                                                       |
| 9.- social media    | i) A problem or bad part of a thing or situation.                                                                         |
| 10.- benefit        | j) Making you want to keep doing something and not to stop                                                                |

