

Canadian Rights

Match the right to the definition.

Freedom of religion	Mobility rights	Equality rights
Freedom of thought	Democratic rights	Legal rights
Freedom of peaceful assembly	Freedom of expression	Official languages rights
Aboriginal People's Rights

Right	Definition
1.	You can follow any religion you want.
2.	You can move anywhere in Canada. You can apply for a passport and travel.
3.	Men and women have the same rights.
4.	You can say and write what you want.
5.	The government must communicate in English and French.
6.	You can join a peaceful protest.
7.	You can think and believe what you want.
8.	The first people in Canada have special rights with the government.
9.	You can vote in elections.
10.	You are protected from unreasonable actions from the police. You have the right to a fair trial if you go to court.