SEAHORSES

Seahorses are very small fish. They head looks like a tiny horse. There are around 36 seahorse species. Seahorses live in the ocean. They are carnivorous. They have got a tail. They haven´t got shells. They haven´t got legs and arms.

They can live 3 years. The smallest seahorses are 2 cm. The biggest seahorses are 35 cm. A baby seahorse is the size of an M&M (conguito edo lakasito tamainakoa).

TURTLES

Turtles are reptiles. There are about 250 species.

Turtles have got a shell that protects them. They have got a little tail and they have got four legs. Turtles are herbivorous (they don´t eat meat – ez dute haragirik jaten).

(leatherback sea turtle)

The smallest turtles are less than 10cm and the largest turtle is the leatherback sea turtle, it can weigh 900kg and it´s 2 meters long! It´s very very big.

DICTIONARY:

-Tail – buztana / cola

-Shell – oskola / caparazón

CHOOSE SEAHORSES, TURTLES or BOTH (SEAHORSES AND TURTLES)

They are fish.

There are about 250 species.

They have got shells.

They have got a tail.

They haven´t got legs.

They are carnivorous.

They are reptiles.

There are about 36 species.

They live 3 years.

We have to protect them.