

I Write the words in English and in Estonian.

	/ ¹ sekrətri/
	/ ¹ plʌmə(r)/
	/mjʊ ¹ zɪʃ(ə)n/
	/ɪ ¹ lek ¹ trɪʃ(ə)n/
	/ʃef/
	/nɜː(r)s/
	/ ¹ bɪldə(r)/
	/ ¹ tiːtʃə(r)/
	/ ¹ rest(ə)rɒnt/
	/ ¹ fæktri/
	/wɪə(r)d/
	/ ¹ ɔːf(ə)l/
	/wɜː(r)st/

II What's the word?

Someone whose job is to serve people in a shop -

A place where people stay when they are ill or injured -

A building where large quantities of goods are produced using machines -

A person or company that buys goods or services -

By chance, without being planned or intended -

Someone who puts a lot of effort into their work is ... -

Done for only part of the time that an activity is usually performed -

If someone or something moves somewhere where they can no longer be seen -

A path with a hard surface beside a road -

III Correct form of present simple.

My sister _____ (like) to take long walks. The weather _____
(be) sunny and warm today. Tom _____ (not think) before he says something. My cousin _____ (live) in Spain but works in Portugal. I _____ (be) afraid of spiders. My mother _____ (not like) when I wear headphones. What _____ you _____ (want) to do today? My grandparents _____ (love) my brother and me. My brother _____ (hate) reading books. Sam _____ (love) fish and chips. Meg _____ (not be) a fan of rap music. _____ (Be) your books on the table? My favourite colours _____ (be) green, blue, and red. My father _____ (work) in a factory.
They _____ (not work) in a hospital.