EXERCISE 1

Question 33 to 40

We interviewed six people about different culinary pleasures in a 5-star hotel. Read the texts below and answer the questions that follow.

People's Choice On Different Culinary Pleasure

A -RITA AND CHARLES, MARRIED COUPLE, MID 30s Rita and Charles are a romantic couple. They adore dancing after a candlelight dinner for their anniversary. The Lobby Lounge will be an ideal rendezvous for a cosy chat or after dinner drinks. The resident band provides soothing numbers perfect for the mood. Settle for a coffee or let the bar surprise you with one of their delightful, delicious cocktail concoctions.
B - CHARLOTTE AND JAMES, LATE 20s Charlie and Charles are nature lovers, and they will definitely pick Coffee Garden as their culinary pleasure. They can enjoy a casual buffet breakfast or savour a wide selection of local and international fare throughout the day in this partially open-air coffee shop, decorated with bamboo pillars and rattan blinds that blend with the sun drenched, lust green surroundings.
C - ROB AND ROSS, EARLY 20s Rob and Ross relish Shang Court which is discreetly tucked away in the Garden Wing. This fine restaurant provides as sophisticated ambience for Cantonese cuisine. Savour tantalising Cantonese and Szechuan specialities in the theme buffets every weekend.
D -PAUL AND PHYLLIS, EARLY 40s Paul and Phyllis have no particular preference earlier but after they enjoyed their first experience at Waka Restaurant. They actually hope for more. The master chefs prepare visually exciting dishes that entice more than just the tastebuds. Marvel at the showmanship of their Teppanyaki Chef or take your freshest sashimi in private dining rooms.
E -FRED AND LILIAN, LATE 60s Fred and Lilian savour fine dining at the Feringgi Grill because it is in a class of its own. An excellent selection of wines is available to complement the Grill's unrivalled creations of contemporary and traditional continental cuisine.
F -MONISHE, SPINSTER, MID 50s Monishe is a wealthy unmarried woman who inherits large amount of money from her parents. She likes to spend at the Pool Bar which is set against the tropical garden. It is an oasis for your favourite snacks while soaking up the sun or splashing in the pool.
