Part 5 : MATCHING AND INFORMATION TRANSFER
EXERCISE 3

Question 33 to 40

We interviewed six teenagers about what kind of holiday they prefer. Read the texts below and answer the questions that follow.

People who want to go on holiday

A - MAGGIE, 22 years old I would like a holiday with other people in their twenties. I want to go diving during the day, go out dancing and to different restaurants every evening. I only have a week free during December.
B – ALEXIA, 24 years old Alexia is interested in mountain climbing. I want to sleep in tents and make my own food. I am able to spend four or five weeks on this holiday. I was a Girl Guide during my school days.
C - JOHAN, 25 years old I live in the countryside. I hope to spend a few months in a big city, ideally in the home of somebody who can tell me about life in the city. I don't mind paying a little and help the owner to do house chores.
D - LEONG, 20 years old I want to spend two or three weeks walking in the suburban areas. I like to stay somewhere new each night, but do not want to carry many heavy luggage. Travelling light will enable me to go many places over a short period of time.
E – KIM BENG, 18 years old I prefer to go on holidays with my parents. I am able to take 2 weeks of college break and visit a place which is outside my country. I would like to explore different towns in the new country, but my parents would prefer to travel on a cruise and relax on board.
F -SUSAN, 26 years old Basically, wherever I go, I will definitely look for places with good food. Among the food paradises in Asia are located in Thailand and Malaysia. I have tried Penang Char Koay Teow, Selangor Famous Satay and Johor Curry Chicken. My next stop will be the former, "The Land of Smiles".
