In my family, we like skiing. My brother loves skiing sometimes he goes at 30 kph! I know that professional skiers go at 100 kph, but that's because they train and work every day. I don't want to ski professionally, but I think it's important that you can ski when you live in the mountains like we do. My little brother is learning to ski right now. At the moment, he skis quite – he falls and has accidents all the time. But he's only four! My grandfather skis and now because he doesn't want to fall and hurt himself. The only person who doesn't like skiing in my family is my grandmother. But she sits and waits for us to finish. Then we all go and eat together.
