

PUT THE WORD WHERE IT BELONGS

Ankle /æŋ.kl/		I fell over and twisted my calf /kɑ:f/		A fish bone got stuck in my Chest /tʃest/		He folded his arms across his elbow /ˈel.bəʊ/		Her arm was bandaged from the to the fingers forehead /ˈfɔː.hed/		I burnt my on some soup last night.
hip /hɪp/		I injured my playing tennis.
knee /niː/		I rested my head on her lip /lɪp/		My ached terribly after the climb. shin /ʃɪn/		She kissed me on the shoulder /ˈʃəʊl.də/		He has not been able to play football since January because his was hurting.
thigh /θaɪ/		She's got a high throat /θrəʊt/		She's got a nasty bruise on her tongue /tʌŋ/		The baby was crawling around on its hands and wrist /rɪst/		The skirt was a bit tight across the