

D. ACTIVE OR PASSIVE - IN PRESENT SIMPLE OR PROGRESSIVE

1. The Bagrut examinations _____ (give) now.
2. Many people _____ (borrow) books from libraries.
3. Experiments _____ usually _____ (do) in laboratories.
4. Costumes _____ (wear) on Purim.
5. Teenagers seldom _____ (dress) formally.
6. Look at David. He _____ (smile) because he _____ (praise) by the teacher.
7. Many changes _____ (make) at our school at the moment.
8. The police _____ (chase) the three runaway prisoners now.
9. It's one o'clock now and lunch _____ (serve).

E. USE PASSIVE IN PRESENT SIMPLE OR PROGRESSIVE, PAST SIMPLE OR PROGRESSIVE

1. While we _____ (sleep) peacefully our car _____ (steal).
2. Supper _____ (serve) when the guests arrived.
3. The thieves _____ (catch) at ten o'clock last night.
4. The information you wanted _____ (gather) by the police right now.
5. My bicycle _____ (repair) when I came to collect it.
6. Children _____ (influence) by television programs.
7. John _____ (question) very carefully by Novak.
8. The Beatles' songs _____ (know) all over the world.
9. Important letters and documents _____ (send) by fax.

F. ACTIVE OR PASSIVE

1. A new building _____ (build) here.
2. My parents _____ (change) their car next year.
3. In the future, children _____ (study) at home.
4. His book _____ (publish) next month.
5. Miss Smith _____ (return) home soon.
6. My dog _____ (give birth) to four puppies last week.
7. The parent-teacher meeting _____ (held) in June.
8. A lot of money _____ (transfer) to John's account.
9. Nine symphonies _____ (write) by Beethoven.
10. Kelly _____ (go) to jazz dancing classes twice a week.