

Unit 1 Did you hurt yourself?

Vocabulary

A. Write the correct word and its part of speech.

injure – distract – occur – encounter – adjust – obey – ignore – accident – crash – gesture – abuse – drowsy – severe – aggressive – swerve

Word	Part of Speech	Definition to set or control
		to face
		to prevent someone from giving attention to something.
		to happen
		to comply with a direction or command insulting and offensive language.
		very great
		tired and sleepy
		offensive or ready to attack to change direction suddenly a movement of a part of the body to hurt
		a bad event that happen by chance, likely resulting in injury an accident involving a vehicle in which it is damaged refuse to notice intentionally

B. Match each word to its part of speech.

distract – distracted – distraction – injure – injured – injury

Verb	Noun	Adjective

C. Choose the correct answer.

1. [Distracted – Fatigue – Safe] drivers don't pay attention to the road.
2. Drowsy is another word for [sleepy – tailgating – distracted]
3. You should always [injure – obey – adjust] the speed limit while driving.
4. [Distracted – Aggressive – Drowsy] driving is ignoring the safety of others and take risks and using rude gestures.
5. A: What happened to your hand? B: It [cut – stuck – burned] in the drawer
6. [Fatigue – Electric – Aggressive] Shock is caused by not turning off the electricity before using tools for fixing.
7. Driver [Distracted – Fatigue – Safe] is caused by falling asleep at the wheel or go off the road.