

My quiz Proficiency: Listening-Speaking , pg. 44-45

Name: _____

Date: _____

Complete the sentences with the words (shift, assume, refer, beneath, shortcoming, representative, negotiate, extensive, degree, status) and make any necessary changes.

1. Phil refused to take the cleaning job; he said such work was him.
2. People still judge you by your In the community; the rich get more respect than the poor.
3. Don't that Jacob will join us-we need to ask him to make sure.
4. He has his, but I still think he's a better manager than our previous one.
5. The doctor couldn't diagnose the problem so he me to a specialist.
6. As one of our sales, you will of course be expected to know our products inside out.
7. You won't even be considered for a job like this without a university
8. I like working the night, but it's difficult to sleep during the day,
9. I really need more money, but I'm useless at a higher salary.
10. If you think you are the right person for the job, the company will providetraining.