

David: So, Jenny, what are we going to do for Martha's birthday?

Jenny: We can go to the cinema.

We did it last year and it was fun.

David: Maybe, but what about a picnic?

It's boring to do the same thing every year.

Jenny: I know! Martha likes films.

We could go to the cinema.

David: Yes, but the cinema is quite expensive.

Jenny: You're right.

Umm.

Do you like the cinema?

David: Yes, I do. That's a great idea.

I think it's going to be sunny on Saturday and I know Martha likes the cinema.

Do you think she wants to go to the park in the centre for her birthday?

Jenny: I'm sure she does.

So, we could buy some food and drink in the supermarket in the morning.

David: OK. And we can go to the park.

money.

Jenny: But not Martha because it's her birthday.

We can buy some food and drink.

David: We need to buy drinks.

Do you think Martha likes orange or lemon?

Jenny: I'm not sure.

What do you think is best?

David: We can get lemon and orange, then everyone is happy.

Jenny: That sounds good!

So, who shall we invite?

David: I'll ask Martha. She can come to the park, then I can send a text to her friends to invite them.

Jenny: Of course.

Now we have to think of some ideas.

David: What ideas have you got?

Jenny: I saw a fantastic T-shirt in the sports shop.

Maybe she'll like that!

David: Great. We can go to the shop now.
