My family

My name's Luis. I live with my wife, Mariluz, and our two children in Madrid, but I was born in Ronda in the south of Spain. My parents still live there. They don't visit us very often because they don't like big cities. We visit them twice a year- at New Year and in the summer-when there is a big family celebration like a wedding or a special birthday.

I've got a lot of aunts and uncles and cousins there, to, so it's good fun. My grandfather-that's my mother's father –is still alive. He's eighty-two and he lives with one of my aunts. My other grandparents are dead now.

I've got a brother and a sister. My sister lives in Canada with her husband. I don't see her very often, but we send emails and she phones me, too. They've got one child-a little girl.

My brother is still single. He lives in Madrid, too, so I see him now and then. Our children love him. They think Uncle Manolo is cool because he drives a sports car.

21. How many people are there in Luis's family?
