Katie talks about what she did on her day off. This lesson looks at the past tense.

Man: What did you do yesterday?

Woman: Yesterday was my day off. I _____ the day early and _____ up a lot of house chores before work. I _____ the kitchen, _____ the lawn, _____ some letters, _____ the trash, and _____ my clothes. I even _____ the furniture.

Man: Wow! What did you do after that?

Woman: After that, I _____ to work because I needed to do some things for my job. I _____ the bus because it _____ full. I _____ the walk though, as I strolled through the park to my office.

Man: Wait! Did you work? It was your day off!

Woman: Yes, I know! I did work! I worked for about three hours. I _____ some emails and finished a paper I needed to send to a customer.

Man: Did you work long?

Woman: No, after that, I walked to my local gym. I exercised for about one hour. I _____ weights and walked on the treadmill for some time. Then, I showered and headed home.

Man: What did you do last night?

Woman: At home, I _____ dinner and chatted with my roommate. After eating, I cleaned up the kitchen. I wanted to watch a movie, but it was too late so I _____ not to. All in all, it was a good day.
