

On the plane

ambulances
bummer
died
emergency
engine
exploded
feel like
flaming fireball
flew into
fuel
heaven
landed
lost
passengers
proceeded
scariest
screaming at the top of my lungs slight
stewardess
tires

Ellen: So what's the thing that you've ever done?

Leo: I was on the plane to Russia and the engine I was looking out of the window and the entire just turned into a fireball. It was right after Sully had that incident happen to him, when the geese both engines.

Ellen: Right. And he on the river.

Leo: This happened in one of the engines, and I was the only person there that seemed to see this, but it was a , and it was all Russian And I kinda felt like I'd already and gone to 'cause no one said anything. And I was saying "What the hell is going on here?" and the people just kinda looked back at me and the came out and said: "We seem to have a problem here." And the Russian guy finally said: "What is the problem?" and she said: "Well, we one of our engines." And he goes: "How many engines did we have?" She goes: "Well, we had two. Now we have one. He to say: "That is not, that is not good. That is not good." And we basically dumped for 45 minutes and did an landing and all our tires exploded. And there was a hundred different there and it was on CNN. That was another!

Ellen: Wow, oh my God! That's incredible!

Leo: I I should write a book now.

Ellen: Yeah, well no, I'm gonna write it.