

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a Christmas workshop. In the center, a large green Christmas tree is decorated with yellow stars and red and blue ornaments. A girl in a red dress and a pointed hat is climbing a ladder to hang a star on the tree. To the right, Santa Claus, with a white beard and red suit, stands holding a plate of cookies. In the foreground, a boy in a red suit is standing near a pink castle. A girl in a green dress is sitting on the floor, writing a letter. The room is filled with various toys and gifts, including a blue train, a pink piggy bank, a green dinosaur, and a hot air balloon. The background features a large window with a diamond pattern and a red and white striped awning. The floor is red, and the walls are yellow with brown beams.
