A Clever Old Man

Mrs. Brown's grandfather lived with Mrs. Brown and her husband. Every morning he went for a walk in the park and came home at half past twelve for his lunch. But one morning, a police car stopped outside Mrs. Brown's house at twelve o'clock, two policemen helped Mrs. Brown's grandfather to get out. One of them said to Mrs. Brown: "The poor old gentleman lost his way on the park and telephoned us for help, so we sent a car to bring him home". Mrs. Brown was very surprised, but she thanked the policemen and they left. "But grandfather", she then said, "you have been to that park nearly every day for twenty years. How did you lose your way there?" The old man smiled, closed one eye and said: "I didn't quite lose my way, I just got tired and I didn't want to walk home!".
