

IV - Use "to-infinitive" to combine the sentences.

1. Don't drive too fast. It's very dangerous.

2. Anyone can boil eggs and vegetables. It's easy.

3. You can finish your homework before bedtime. It's possible.

4. They want to visit Cambodia this summer. It's interesting.

II – Rewrite each sentence so that the new sentence has a similar meaning to the original one, using the words in brackets.

1. You are not ill so you don't have to see a doctor. (NEED)

2. It was wrong of you to criticize him in such a rude way. (SHOULDN'T)

3. That he decided to quit the job surprised all of us. (DECISION)
