Unit 3: Exercise 2

Choose the correct words to complete the text.

What are the main [ ] of news? Where do journalists get their stories from? Well, there's always an element of personal [ ], i.e. seeing things with your own eyes and describing what you see. In the same way, journalists interview a lot of [ ] to events, to find out what happened from the people who actually saw it happening. Journalists can also find their own news stories, through investigation, where they do a lot of research to [ ] something completely new. They can also find out useful information from [ ] media sites. It's fair to say that a large number of news stories are provided by businesses and other organisations as press [ ]. Organisations also hold press conferences, where a large number of journalists are invited to listen to important [ ] and then ask questions.
