Potato pancakes

Potato pancakes are easy to cook. First you and the potatoes. (Don't them or them in halves!) Then you the potatoes and onion into a big bowl. (Use a hand grater. It's only 10 potatoes – that's nothing.) Next, the eggs, flour and some baking soda with kefir. After that, everything well. Finally, the pancakes on both sides in vegetable oil. (Do it on two pans at a time – it's faster! And fry them on medium heat.) Now, them with sour cream. Some people like them with cracklings.
