

LIKES & DISLIKES

😊😊😊	I love driving!
😊	I like driving.
😐	I don't mind driving.
😞	I don't like driving.
😞😞😞	I hate driving!

After like, love, hate and don't mind, we can use a noun or a verb + -ing.

I love my car. I love driving.

SPELLING: verb + -ing

most verbs → add -ing	watch → watching go → going see → seeing
verb ends in consonant (g, n, t, etc.) + -e → take away the -e then add -ing	drive → driving use → using
verb ends in one vowel (a, e, i, o, u) and one consonant (g, n, t, etc.) → double the consonant and add -ing	run → running sit → sitting
never double the consonants w, x or y → add -ing only	know → knowing play → playing

Write the -ing form of the verbs.

E.g. wait waiting
