

Setting

Name: _____

Date: _____

When and where a story happens is called the setting.
The setting can be a real place or a make-believe place.
The setting can be long ago, or even in the future. As you read, think about the time and place in the story.

Read the story and the questions. Then write the correct answer for each question.

Chrissy was spending three weeks with her grandparents in Andros. They lived on a farm high in the hills. Chrissy had never been outside New Providence before. Soon after she arrive, her grandfather planned a camping trip.

The first night at the campground, a storm suddenly came up. The whispering wind began to roar. Several large branches fell from the trees near their tent.

Chrissy's grandfather quickly took down the tent, and they all helped to load the van. "Tonight, we'll sleep better at home," Grandpa said.

1. Where does the story take place?

2. Why do Chrissy and her grandparents leave the campground?

3. How might this story have been different if a big storm had not come up?

4. Why does Grandpa want to go home?

- A) The campground is too crowded.
- B) The campground is not safe.
- C) The tent is too cold.

