

Choose the word that correctly completes the gaps in both sentences

1 Can you give me a recipe for a traditional British main course?
 Eight students from my class have signed up for an evening History lesson.

2 The music's too loud. Can you turn the volume down a little bit?
 Don't turn around! Your ex-girlfriend is sitting behind you in the corner.

3 I'm really fed up with this weather. It's been raining for two weeks.
 Peter, can you tidy your room today?

4 Could I borrow your phone? Mine's got a flat battery.
 The countryside was completely empty. There were no mountains in sight.

5 You can use that bottle to get rid of empty bottles.
 Let's have a picnic by the river on Saturday!