

NEW YEAR AROUND THE WORLD

Exercise 1: Choose the correct name of each New year tradition to the picture

Breaking
dishes

Lucky
money

Water
fighting

Party by the beach

Hang onions

See the "Ball Drop"

Firstfooting

Run with a suitcase

Eat 12
grapes

Ring the bell

Exercise 2: Look at the flag, listen to the name of each country and choose the correct word

Exercise 3: Connect the New Year tradition to the country

Breaking dishes

Ring the bell

See "Ball Drop"

Hang onions

Run with a suitcase

First-footing

Eat 12 grapes

Water fighting

Lucky money

Party by the beach

The USA

Argentina

Denmark

Scotland

Thailand

Japan

Greece

Australia

Spain

China

Exercise 4: Read the sentences and choose True or False

Sentence	True	False
New Year in Australia is in the summer.
Only people in Scotland believe in First-footing
Water fighting means washing away the old year.
Running around with a suitcase on New Year will bring more travelling next year.
Japanese see fireworks and ring the bell.
12 grapes are 12 months of a year.
Only China has Zodiac.
The “Ball Drop” is only in Times Square.
Hanging onions means more luck next year.
Many countries have Lucky money in red envelopes.		