

Unit 6: Gender equality (Vocabulary)

I. Choose the best options to fill the blanks.

1. Parents' behaviors may _____ their children's personalities greater than they expect.
A. effect B. affect C. influence on
2. Hoang and Trang are lazy. Their mother has to _____ them to do their homework every evening.
A. allow B. make C. force
3. We don't allow any kind of _____ against our staff.
A. equality B. equal C. discrimination
4. You should take a rest. You look _____ after working for so many hours.
A. relieved B. exhausted C. refreshed
5. There is no _____ on the number of female students that can enrol in this course.
A. limitation B. ban C. extent
6. The leaders decided to _____ that country from the organization.
A. eliminate B. include C. prevent
7. We are holding a meeting this afternoon to _____ the recent issues in our company.
A. address B. concentrate C. talk

II. Complete the sentences using the given phrases.

gender discrimination

eliminate inequality

enrolment rate

address poverty

1. We need to _____ so that students from poor families can go to school.
2. What is the _____ in primary schools in remote areas in Vietnam?
3. Equal salaries and opportunities are necessary to _____ at work.
4. Women are more likely to become victims of _____ than men.

III. Match

1. Children shouldn't be allowed to _____ work in the agricultural sector.
2. Forty percent of the workforce _____ watch such violent films.
3. The company was sued _____ because it had not paid wages for over twenty workers.

IV. Match

1. Vietnam has made _____ qualified enough to become a lawyer.
2. She is not _____ remarkable progress in reducing poverty.
3. Stephanie works for more hours, _____ but her wage is lower than her husband's.

V. Complete the sentences using the given phrases.

take responsibility for take this opportunity unfair treatment equal opportunities has a preference

1. You must _____ your own decision.
2. Alan will _____ to work for Google.
3. Helen sued her former manager for _____.
4. Our education system provides _____ for students.
5. This company _____ for male candidates over female ones.

THE END