Name_____Date_____Teacher_____Number_____

Heredity A and D Statements

<table>
<tr><th>Statement</th><th>Statement</th></tr>
<tr><td>1. The color of a plant's flower petals is an inherited characteristic.</td><td></td></tr>
<tr><td>2. Kayla inherited all of the following characteristics from her parents:
<table><tr><th>Inherited Characteristics</th></tr><tr><td>straight hair</td></tr><tr><td>long hair</td></tr><tr><td>name is Kayla</td></tr></table></td><td>6. This bird can unlock his cage.

The color of the cockatoo's feathers is an inherited characteristic. The cockatoo unlocking its cage door is a learned characteristic.</td></tr>
<tr><td>3. A young zebra will look like its parents because genetic information is passed along from parent to offspring.</td><td>7. Pierced ears, brown hair, and a tattoo are ALL learned characteristics/traits.</td></tr>
<tr><td>4. Daniel's dog loves to play with his ball. This is a learned characteristic.</td><td>8. When a bird builds a nest, this is an instinct (born knowing how to build nests).</td></tr>
</table>

LIVEWORKSHEETS