

NAME: _____

Talking about the Cost

You are going to hear people talking in eight different situations about money. For questions 1-8, listen and choose the best answer, a, b or c.

- 1 You hear a conversation between two friends. Who are they discussing?
 - a. a mother
 - b. a friend
 - c. a son
- 2 You hear a woman talking to a friend about selling her house. What is one reason why she wants to sell the house?
 - a. It's far from her husband's place of work.
 - b. She wants to make some money.
 - c. It isn't convenient when her family visits.
- 3 You hear part of a talk about changes in the teenage market. What is the speaker describing?
 - a. Summer jobs for teenagers.
 - b. Different adverts for the teenage market.
 - c. The importance of teenage buying.
- 4 You hear a woman telling her husband about a scarf she bought him. Why is the man annoyed?
 - a. He thinks it was too expensive.
 - b. He doesn't like wearing a scarf.
 - c. He doesn't like the colours.
- 5 You hear a man and a woman talking about their jobs. What is the man's main problem?
 - a. There is no good place to eat.
 - b. He doesn't earn anything for extra hours.
 - c. There is far too much work.
- 6 You hear a man talking about a new shopping mall. What does he say about the mall?
 - a. It improves the town's appearance.
 - b. It will create traffic problems.
 - c. It cost relatively little to build.
- 7 You hear a woman on the radio speaking about the work she does. What does she say about her work?
 - a. She needs more help.
 - b. She is thinking of doing something else.
 - c. She is making enough money.
- 8 You hear a woman talking about a new shop. What really surprised her?
 - a. The customers are rich.
 - b. The selection is limited.
 - c. The prices are so high.