

USED TO – BE USED TO – GET USED TO

Used to / didn't use to + infinitive

I used to drink five cups of coffee a day, but now I only drink tea.

When I lived in France as a child I used to have croissants for breakfast.

I didn't recognize him. He didn't use to have a beard.

Use used to / didn't use to + infinitive to talk about past habits or repeated actions or situations / states which have changed

! usedto doesn't exist in the present tense. For present habits, use usually + the present simple, e.g. I usually walk to work. NOT I use to walk to work.

You can also use would to refer to repeated actions in the past. When I lived in France as a child I would always eat croissants for breakfast. But you can't use would with non-action verbs. NOT I didn't recognize him. He wouldn't have a beard.

Be used to / get used to + gerund

Carlos has lived in London for years. He's used to driving on the left

I'm not used to sleeping with a duvet. I've always slept with blankets.

A: I can't get used to working at night. I feel tired all the time

B: Don't worry. You'll soon get used to it.

1. Use be used to + gerund to talk about a new situation which is now familiar or less strange
2. Use get used to + gerund to talk about a new situation which is becoming familiar or less strange
- You can't use the infinitive after be / get used to. NOT He's used to drive on the left
