

Episode 2—YOUNG DECTIVES

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SNOW

Read and listen to the story.

1 Mrs Rose is missing. The police are busy looking for a robber. The children look for Mrs Rose. They start their investigation at her house.

2 Inside, Annabel and Joey start looking for clues. Something is different in the kitchen – but what?

3 It isn't snowing now. Gaia notices some footprints in the snow.

4 Matt and Gaia follow the footprints for a while. Suddenly ...

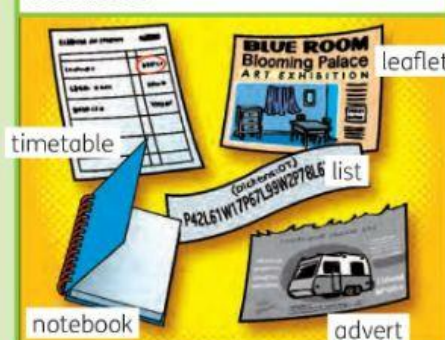

5 Matt has got a map.

6 Back in Mrs Rose's garden, Annabel sees something where the snow is melting.

7 Inside the envelope there are five clues to help them find Mrs Rose.

8 Later ... Footprints to the train station and a train timetable. Is Mrs Rose going on a trip?

1 Look at the pictures. Remember and correct the sentences.
Read the story again and check.

It's foggy.

It's snowing.

The sun is shining.

2 Tick ✓ the six clues in the story.

a clock

a train timetable

a list of strange numbers and letters

a pencil

an umbrella

an advert from a newspaper

a banana

an empty notebook

a leaflet about an art exhibition

3 Read and match.

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 1 The police are | a in the kitchen. |
| 2 The children are | b looking for a robber. |
| 3 The clock isn't | c disappearing in the rain. |
| 4 The footprints are | d catching a train at the train station? |
| 5 Is Mrs Rose | e looking for Mrs Rose. |

4 Read and click on the correct words.

¹ Annabel / Mrs Rose is missing.
The children go to her ² house / school to look for her. It's ³ foggy / snowing.

A clock is missing from the ⁴ kitchen / living room.

Now ⁵ the sun is shining / it's raining and the footprints in the snow are disappearing. The footprints go to the ⁶ train / police station. Annabel finds ⁷ an envelope / a clock on the ground. There are ⁸ four / five clues in the envelope.

