Hi, Danny!

I really love cartoons. I'm writing to tell you about an animated film I saw last night. It was Incredibles 2 and it's the newest film in the Incredibles series. It was really entertaining! It came out a week ago. The director of the film is Brad Bird and the voice of the hero, Elastigirl, is Holly Hunter.

Incredibles 2 is about a superhero family and how they go out to save the world! A new enemy, Screenslaver, uses screens in the city to control people and the Incredibles go on an amazing adventure to fight him!

I really loved the film and I think the audience enjoyed it, too! The story was exciting and the music was great, but I liked the animation most of all. It was so imaginative!

Go and see it, I know you'll love it!

What about you, Danny? Can you recommend another animated film?
