

SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES

When you write about the similarities and differences between people, places or things, you use the following words:

Similarities	Similarly,	Likewise,	Both,
Differences	On the other hand,	However,	In contrast.

Examples:

Similarities

1. Cats are household pets. Similarly, rabbits are household pets.
2. Chocolates are sweet. Likewise, candies are sweet.
3. Both grilled chicken and fried chicken are delicious.

Differences

1. The apple is red. In contrast, the lemon is yellow.
2. Kuala Lumpur is a big city. On the other hand, Kangar is a small town.
3. It is cold in the winter. However, it is hot in the summer.

Practice 1

Compare and contrast between a lion and a cow using the double bubble map. Drag and drop the words given to the correct place.

forest farm tame wild strong tail

Practice 2

Fill in the blanks with either On the other hand, In contrast, Similarly, Likewise, However or Both

- 1.. He was late to the meeting. _____ I was delayed.
2. I like that sweater. _____ it only comes in one colour.
3. I'd like to eat outside. _____ I should be trying to save money.
4. You can be _____ mother and businesswoman.
5. I think apples are good. _____ I think oranges are good