Working in films

You don't need to be (1) famous actor to get (2) part on (3) film set but you need to be willing to start at (4) bottom. For example, you could spend hours standing in (5) rain by (6) gate in (7) field stopping (8) people from coming in. In (9) Britain and most other countries, you should look for (10) job as (11) 'runner'. Runners fetch things and help generally. This is (12) most junior job and even if you want to be (13) camera operator, it's (14) good place to start. You could do (15) training course but (16) best qualification is (17) experience.

Dear Jay, Thank you for your letter. I have a job in a shop near where I live. I work every Saturday (1)but..... in the holidays I work full-time. (2) I enjoy the contact with people, it's a shoe shop and I'm not really interested in what I'm selling! Most people don't want to work in the evening (3) it's not too difficult to get an evening or weekend job in a supermarket. Some even stay open all night! (4) students often work in restaurants and cafés because that's usually evening and weekend work too so you could look for a job as a waiter. (5) the weekends are probably when you want to spend time with your friends. (6) you might get free food and that will save you money! I hope that's helpful. (7) the jobs I suggest are hard work. However, I think working in a restaurant is more interesting. (8) I can send you details of some websites you could look at which advertise summer jobs. I look forward to seeing you in the summer. Best wishes, Ben
