

Listen for details. Listen to the conversation about how crowdsourcing is used to write a story.

Circle the correct answer to complete each sentence.

/dʒə'mɑl/

1. Jamal is working _____.
 - a. alone
 - b. with a couple of friends
 - c. with a lot of people
2. Jamal met the other writers _____.
 - a. at school
 - b. in writing class
 - c. online
3. Each person suggests _____ for the story.
 - a. a character
 - b. a sentence
 - c. an ending
4. The story is _____.
 - a. unpredictable
 - b. unrealistic
 - c. hard to follow
5. Jamal is working on a _____ story.
 - a. fantasy
 - b. love
 - c. crime
6. The story isn't _____.
 - a. realistic
 - b. true
 - c. well known

Look at your notes in A and your answers in B. What is a crowdsourced story? Complete the summary below. Compare your answers with a partner's.

To create a crowdsourced story, (1.) _____ work together. They don't work in an office. They work (2.) _____. Everyone contributes (3.) _____.

The people don't (4.) _____ each other, and they don't receive any (5.) _____ for their work.

Part of Jamal's story takes place in Madrid. What place do you think would make a good story setting?