PART 3: QUESTIONS 14 – 18

For each question, choose the correct answer:

The Young Achiever of the Year

Kal Kaur Rai has always been interested in fashion and has just won the title of Young Achiever of the Year at the Asian Business Awards. Ever since she was a child, she has drawn clothes and designed patterns. She never told her hard-working parents, who own a supermarket, that she wanted to turn her hobby into a career. She thought they expected her to go into a more established business, so she went to university to do a management degree.

After university, she moved to London and worked in an advertising agency. Once she wanted to attend industry events but couldn't afford the designer clothes she liked. She started making skirts and tops for herself. When her friends saw her clothes, they asked her to make things for them. She then found a small shop in London willing to take her designs on a sale-or-return basis. They were very popular and nothing came back. This encouraged her to leave her advertising job, take out a £20,000 loan and begin her own womenswear label.

Kal's parents were not angry about her career change and said they would support her, which really pleased her. Her clothes are now on sale in over 70 stores and her business has an income of over £500,000. Her clothes appear in fashion magazines, she designs for pop stars and she has just gained public recognition by winning this award. Her business has come a long way and she knows she is extremely lucky. 'What I do is my hobby — and I get paid for it! But remember, I've worked hard for this.

14 What is the writer trying to do in the text?

- A encourage fashion designers to make better business plans
- B compare a job in fashion with other choices of career
- C give details of recent changes in the fashion industry
- D explain how a woman set up a fashion business

15 What does the reader learn about Kars parents?

- A They wanted Kal to help them run the family business.
- B They did not realize that Kal wanted to work in fashion.
- C They insisted Kal should continue with her job in advertising.
- D They did not think Kal worked hard enough at university.

16 Kal decided to borrow £20,000 when

- A all her clothes in the London shop were sold.
- B her friends asked her to make clothes for them.
- C she lost her job at the advertising agency.
- D the fashion industry was in a period of growth.

17 What does Kal say about her career?

- A She plans to open more stores.
- B She believes that she deserves her success.
- C She particularly enjoys designing for famous people.
- D She expects more people to buy her clothes after the award.

18 What might Kal say now about her career?

A. My management degree has helped me more than anything else. It's so important that young people interested in fashion can deal with

B. Running a fashion business is a dream come true and my parents being happy with my choice makes it even more special.

C. I've learnt so much working for other fashion designers. Without this experience, I couldn't have started my own business.

D. Even when I was at university, my friends liked the clothes I made. This encouraged me to think about a career in fashion.

PART 4: QUESTIONS 19 – 23

Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer.

Computer game exhibition

Have you ever tried playing the kind of video games that your parents played? The Museum of Science in Manchester, in the UK, has held an exhibition for the last few years, which invites visitors to do exactly that. It offers them the chance to play games from the last 40 years, in various sessions throughout the day.

These video games sessions have now become one of the main attractions of the museum. They are full of people every day, playing a wide range of games.

19 _____ For parents, for example, these are usually the games they used to play in their childhood.

There's also an educational purpose to the games. For instance, some old types of computer, dating back 40 years, are also available in the sessions. They were originally used in classrooms to teach pupils to write their own computer programs.

20 _____ Now, the museum is holding workshops that encourage children to learn similar skills - and they're still very popular.

The sessions are also seen as social events, as people discover how much fun it is to play video games with other family members. And there's also an area at Power Up! where a number of visitors can sit down together. 21 _____ And nowadays, this is often how fans of video games are more likely to experience playing.

The exhibition also shows how much progress technology has made over the last 40 years. Parents can often remember playing very simple games. But the games that are played today are more complex. 22 _____ And the players also have to use much more complicated techniques.

However, one serious side of the exhibition is that organisers also want to show that video gaming is an important industry, employing many skilled people.

23 _____ That way, people who enjoy gaming will also understand all the hard work, talent and imagination that goes into creating these amazing games.

There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

- A. Visitor each pay for 90-minute sessions.
- B. And at the time, it helped lots of young people to do that.
- C. So they hope the exhibition will share this message.
- D. But not everyone thinks it's a lot of fun.
- E. However, visitors often choose the ones they're familiar with.
- F. They have better storylines and animation, too.
- G. They also create the music to go with the game.
- H. Then they can all enjoy playing the same game.

PART 6: QUESTIONS 30 – 35

For each question, write the correct answer. Write one word for each gap.

My thoughts on how to write

by Sarah Beecham

Welcome to my blog! That's (0).....for...anyone who's new and has (30) visited this site before! But if you (31)seen some of my blogs, then you'll know like sharing ideas about creative writing and how to do it.

At the moment, I'm sitting at my desk in my room, (32).....I do most of my writing. I love writing stories, but not every day. I'll often update my diary or something, too - and this blog, (33) course! But I have a notebook of things I would like to include in my writing and new words I like the sound of.

But I recently discovered the most important thing is just to (34)..... going once you've started writing. And (35).....doesn't matter how bad your writing is at the beginning, because you can always go back and make improvements. In fact, that's the part I enjoy most!
