Lucy's class were going out to the countryside together. They took the bus but didn't need to buy (1) because the driver was Nick's father. The teacher wanted to show the children a big (2) It wasn't a long drive and they arrived there quickly. The waterfall was beautiful, the water dropped and hit the bottom loudly. The teacher said it was old and told them how the water cut into the (3) to make the waterfall.

The children rode happily on the bus coming home, (4) , laughing and talking, but Nick's dad made a mistake. In the forest, they went down the (5) road. "I'm very sorry," he said. "The roads and trees are all the same." They got very lost. It was late and the (6) was a big beautiful white ball in the sky.

Looking out of the window Lucy saw her uncle's farm. "I know where we are," she cried. "We're all right now!"
