My favorite _____ as a child was " Little riding hood". Its main _____ are Little Red Riding Hood, her grandma, the wolf, and the woodsman. The action takes place in the forest, so that is the _____. It follows a _____ of events that begins when little red ridinghood´s mother asked her to take some food to her grandma. She warned the girl not to talk to strangers, and Little red riding hood knew her mother was right. Even though her mother warned her ,the _____ starts when she meets a wolf in the forest and speaks with him. She told him that she was going to visit her grandma. As the wolf was hungry , he rushed into her grandma´s house planning to eat the girl. He locked her grandma into a closet and put on her clothes. The _____ or most exciting part of the story, is when Little red riding hood arrived. She didn´t notice that the one lying on her grandma´s bed was the wolf. She began talking to him until the wolf jumped up and tried to eat her. Fortunately, a woodsman was around and when he heard the shouting, he came in. At the end, the man fought and defeated the wolf. I think the _____ of the _____ was to warn the _____ to be careful not to talk to strangers, and the _____ may be that you must always obey your parents.
