Sushi Soboro was a disappointment. It's in a very nice part of town, so parking is really hard to find. I went for dinner with my best friend. The sushi was not fresh. It was frozen. I made a complaint to the manager, but he said the sushi was delivered that day. I thought he was a little rude. They would not give me a refund or a discount. The waitress was very nice, though. She was very sorry and gave us some noodles. I left a big tip for her.
