

Match the words with their meanings and use them in the sentences.

squat	вышедший из употребления
office	офис
disused	офис
fully-furnished	заброшенный
run-down	пешеходная область
well-lit	опасный
posh	ночлежка
rough	хорошо освещенный
residential	полностью обставленный
pedestrianised	роскошный
abandoned	жилой район

- 1 Always walk on streets at night to be safe.
- 2 You can find houses in rough areas of cities with high crime.
- 3 He had no furniture, so he rented ahouse.
- 4 Wealthy people usually live in a bighouse.
- 5 The council is going to renovate this oldbuilding and turn it into a youth centre.
- 6 In the industrial part of the city there are a lot ofwarehouses because businesses have moved away.
- 7 Ais a house where people live illegally.
- 8 In the business district there are a lot of hugebuildings.
- 9 I live in a quiet area in the suburbs of a big city.
- 10 The shops in my town are located in aarea where cars aren't allowed.
- 11 There is often a lot of crime and poverty in aneighbourhood, in a town or city.

Listen to Jasmine's story and choose the correct answer.

1) Jasmine left home because

- A she wanted to live with her friends.
B she wanted to be independent.
C her parents died.
D her foster family was bad

2) She moved to London because she thought

- A she would make new friends there.
B life would be easier there.
C her friends didn't want her any more.
D she would get a job there.

3) She couldn't find a job

- A she was too young.
B she had no family.
C she had no fixed address.
D she couldn't choose what to do.

4) She spent the first few nights

- A in a mini-hotel with breakfast.
B on the street.
C on a park bench.
D in an expensive hotel.

5) The buildings she occasionally stays in

- A have plenty of room for the homeless.
B can be colder than the streets.
C are in the centre of the city.
D have not any conveniences.

6) Jasmine thinks the worst thing about being homeless is

- A the noise from the traffic.
B the cold weather.
C asking for money from strangers.
D having nothing to do.

7) She tries to survive by

- A asking money from people
B working in a posh houses
C working in the kitchen
D spending her family money

8) More than anything, Jasmine wants

- A to be taken seriously.
B a job.
C her self-confidence back.
D her own home.

Fill in the sentences with the adjectives.

- 1) Manchester is a(n)city because there are many factories and warehouses there.

industrial

- 2) York is a(n)city because it dates from 71 AD.

capital

cosmopolitan

overcrowded

- 3) Newcastle was a(n)town in the 19th century because of the mining industry.

- 4) Milton Keynes is a(n) town that was established in 1967.

market

boom

- 5) Edinburgh is thecity of Scotland.

shanty

- 6) London is a very city with people from lots of different cultures living there.

new historic

- 7) Dublin is a rathercity and housing is scarce.

- 8) Preston is a famous town in the north of England with indoor and outdoor markets open six days a week.

- 9) Fortunately, there are no towns in Britain.

Why do you think people don't have a home?

What is bad about being homeless according to Jasmine's story?