

Name: _____

School: _____

Date: _____

Group: _____

GRAMMAR REVIEW

There is / There are

Instructions: Choose the correct sentence

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="radio"/> There is five dogs | <input type="radio"/> There are five dogs |
| <input type="radio"/> There isn't a carrot | <input type="radio"/> There aren't a carrot |
| <input type="radio"/> Is there pencils on the table? | <input type="radio"/> Are there pencils on the table? |
| <input type="radio"/> There is a cinema | <input type="radio"/> There are a cinema |
| <input type="radio"/> There is ten doors | <input type="radio"/> There are ten doors |
| <input type="radio"/> There isn't a boy | <input type="radio"/> There aren't a boy |
| <input type="radio"/> There isn't water in the bottle | <input type="radio"/> There aren't water in the bootle |
| <input type="radio"/> Is there five balls? | <input type="radio"/> Are there five balls? |
| <input type="radio"/> Is there any elephants? | <input type="radio"/> Are there any elepahts? |
| <input type="radio"/> There is eight flowers in the garden | <input type="radio"/> There are eight flowers in the garden |

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with there is/ there are/ there isn't/ there aren't / is there/ are there.

- ☐ _____ a toy (negative)
- ☐ _____ ten monkeys (interrogative)
- ☐ _____ a window (affirmative)
- ☐ _____ a picture of Picasso in the museum (interrogative))
- ☐ _____ juice in the glass (negative)

