HEDY LAMARR

1. She was known as the most_____ woman in the world, but behind her pretty_____was a brilliant_____.

2. She was born in _____ in 1914. Her real name was Hedwig Kiesler and she was the only child of _____ Jewish parents.

3. When she was only 5 years old, she took apart her _____ _____ to see how it worked, and then rebuilt it.

4. Her father was a bank director and was also fascinated with _____. She adored her father and her love of_____ began with him.

5. She was very _____, but because of her beauty people didn't take her seriously so she decided to become a _____star when she was only 16 years old.

6.In 1933 she caused a worldwide sensation by appearing_____ in the film Ecstasy.

7. That same year, she married Friedrich Mandl, the third _____ man in Austria. He was very_____ and even listened to her_____ calls.

8. She quickly grew tired of playing the role of _____wife. She had everything in her expensive golden cage except_____.

9. In 1937, when the situation for Austrian _____ was desperate, she couldn't bear he "imprisonment" any more and escaped to_____, where she met Louis B. Meyer, the head of the Metro- Goldwyn -Meyer film studio.

10. By the time she arrived in _____ with Meyer, she had a $500 a week _____ and a new _____ - Hedi Lamarr.

11. Hedi sensed that the studios valued her _____ more than her _____ ability.

12. To pass the time between scenes and to relax after her intense schedule, Hedi returned to her old childhood hobby: _____.

13. In 1942 she patented the design of a _____ communication system called Frequency Hopping, but the Navy_____ it.

14. She applied to join The National Inventors Council, but her application was _____ because the only contribution they wanted from her was to look _____ for the soldiers.

15. In 1946 she invested her own money into producing and starring a film but she found herself a single_____ without _____, so she had to sell all her _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

16. She fell in love with Aspen, a lovely town in Colorado, and she helped it become a _____ exclusive ski resort.

17. When her son almost died in a car accident, her _____ health state became more fragile and turned to _____for comfort.

18. In 1969 she discovered that the US Navy had actually used her invention in all their ships in 1962 and it had been very _____; but nobody had attributed the invention to her!

19. Hedi _____ to get recognised and paid for her work, but it wasn't until the 1990s that the story of her invention was _____. She received the Electronic Frontier Pioneer _____in 1997 for her scientific efforts.

20. In 1967 the story of her life was published, but she took _____ action against the writers because much of the book was fictional, fake and _____. And it wasn't until the 1990s that people could hear Hedi talk about her life and work in her own words thanks to some_____ included in the film Bombshell.

21. She died in 2000, and finally gained _____14 years after her death.

22. The principles of her work are incorporated into _____ technology and are the basis of the methods used in_____.

23. During her life, Hedi's _____ was ignored, not just because she was a _____, but because of her glamour and _____. It's sad that her brilliance was only appreciated after her _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS