

Choose the correct form of the noun to complete the sentence.

- 1) I saw three (rooves, roofs) while on my way to town.
- 2) Four (halfs, halves) make a whole.
- 3) There are two Indian (chieves, chiefs) in the tribe.
- 4) There are many (bookshelves, bookshelves) in the library.
- 5) The three sisters look like (cliffs, clifves) to me.
- 6) They caught the two (thiefs, thieves) coming out the window of the house.
- 7) Santa has many (elfs, elves) to help him out at Christmas time.
- 8) The (chefs, cheves) are best friends.
- 9) Mummy bought 3 (loafs, loaves) of bread.
- 10) The young men in Laventille are fighting for (turves, turfs) hence why they are dying young.