

Basic information

- 1 Players: There are two teams consisting of 7 players each, 6 court players – one of which is a goalkeeper who stays within the goal or basket area and a player who holds the basket and stands on a chair on the opponent's side. There are also 5 substitute players.

2 Court:

The rectangle court is 16 metres wide and 32 metres long. The 0.5-metre long penalty line is 8 metres far apart from a midpoint of the end-line.

extra players

16 metres wide

32 metres long and

2 teams

a basket

rectangular

Q1: What does one of the players hold in his hands?

Q2: What are substitute players?

Q3: What is the shape of a Chair ball court?

Q4: How long + wide is the court?

Q5: How many teams are there?