

Name: _____

Monday 17th January 2022

Reading Comprehension

Cause and Effect

When you read a story or article you may think about what happens and why it happens. A cause is a reason why something happens. An effect is what happens. Clue words may include: so, because and since. When there are no clue words just think about what happened and why it happened.