I.EFL.2.9.1. Learners can express basic ideas, initiate conversations, and respond to simple questions using appropriate words, phrases, and short sentences. Responses may be slow though pauses do not make the interaction tedious or uncomfortable for participants. (I.3)

I.EFL.2.13.1. Learners can understand a short simple environmental print text type and successfully complete a simple task. (Example: a sign, notice, menu, etc.) (I.3)

I.EFL.2.22.1. Learners can report emotions and compose short responses to literary texts through words and images, or other media (video, audio). Learners can generate and expand on personal opinions and responses to oral and written texts through TPR, playground games, and songs. (I.3, S.3)
